

ARMSA HUMAN RIGHTS CELEBRATIONS

FREE STATE REGION
8 – 16 March 2007

As part of Human Rights Day Celebrations several schools and the University of Free State were visited by Ms. Dawn Soomaroo of ARMSA Free State Region. On 8 March 2007 the Vulumasango School was visited and the children were addressed on the rights of the child. Sexual offences and the manner in which the court deals with juvenile offenders and witnesses were also dealt with.

Children and teachers from the Vulumasango Secondary School in Rocklands were invited on 16 March 2007 to visit the sexual offences courts in Bloemfontein. They were addressed on the matter in which the court operated by both magistrates and attorneys

Fourth year Social Work students from the University of the Free State and court preparation staff were addressed by Ms Dawn Soomaroo on court practice on 16 March 2007

© Dawn Soomaroo 2007